News from your family at Richardton Health Center in Richardton

Lots of summer fun at Richardton Health Center!

The month started with the Vacation Bible School kids visiting, along with Pastor Chuck Loftis and his wife, Kelly. They performed a puppet show and sang for us! Masha Mayer has been coming to volunteer twice a week as well. Any time we have extra kids or teenagers coming to visit, it lights up everyone's face!

In June, we had music with Connie Gjermundson, Dennis and Inky Paulson, Ernie Hecker and Ella and Delbert.

Sara Senn's mom came and baked kuchen bars with the residents! She even brought a freshly made pan of bars, so they could taste test while they waited for the bars to bake! A handful of residents also enjoyed a trip to the Pheasant Café in Mott for lunch.

We will be hosting a family movie night at 7 p.m. July 11, at the Richardton Health Center. The outdoor movie, showing "The Super Mario Bros. Movie," is free for all ages. Bring a blanket or lawn chair. Box cars will be provided for kids to decorate and use to sit during the movie. Popcorn and other refreshments will be available.

Sincerely, Jessi Schmidt, activities director

Fun and Games

Residents use their artistic talents during craft time at Richardton Health Center. In June, we painted pine cones to create some colorful decorations!

LEFT: We periodically take residents on field trips to visit familiar places in the area. In June, residents took a trip to the Pheasant Cafe in Mott, where they enjoyed a great meal and took part in some entertainment. Our residents always enjoy these trips, and we have more planned this summer!

We took advantage of the nice weather and spent some time outside soaking up the rays on the patio and our swing.

To celebrate Father's Day, we had a "Donuts with Dad" celebration!

From playing games, listening to music and playing bingo, residents find plenty of fun activities at Richardton Health Center. We thank all the volunteers who visit and share their musical talents with us during the month!
