Halloween fun at RHC!

October started a busy season here at RHC. Everyone had fun during the month with our Halloween festivities. Staff and residents work together to decorate pumpkins for our annual decorating contest, bringing out the creativity in everyone! Residents and staff voted on their favorite pumpkin and Harry Anderson was our winner with his “Anderson Airlines” pumpkin! Alicia, Jamaica and Olivia helped to carry out his vision!

Loretta Fleckenstein, a retired employee, put her sewing skills to work and made cute goodie bags for the residents filled with treats! On Halloween, staff and some residents dressed for the occasion. Sara and Liz brought back their popular karaoke, Darla made goodies to snack on and we had a surprise visit from the Richardton-Taylor High School Student Council kids, who brought treats for the residents. That evening, we handed out candy to trick-or-treaters who braved the cold.

Keep an eye out for our second annual Silent Auction.

This year, we expanded from trees to include wreaths and gift baskets. The trees and wreaths were reserved ahead of time, and supplied by RHC and will be brought back and be displayed for the Silent Auction. Bids will open on Nov. 27 and will close at noon Dec. 4. Gift baskets can be dropped off by anyone wanting to donate and will be auctioned at the same time. All proceeds will go to the Activities Department.

We are also preparing for our annual craft bazaar and bake sale. It will take place Saturday, Dec. 2, at the Richardton City Hall. There will be a chili lunch available, and a few other vendors. It will be a good day to be out and about in Richardton, as there will also be a vendor show at the Farley Building. All proceeds from the RHC booth and lunch will go to the Activities Department.

Thanks to these and other fundraisers, the Activities Department is able to go on our fun outings, including our Medora trips, to the Dakota Zoo and to the Heritage Center. We are also able to purchase craft supplies, and other projects for the residents to do through out the year!

If you would like more information on the different options to help the residents and Activities Department this holiday season, feel free to reach out to Jessi at 974-3304

Thanks for all of you support!

Sincerely, Jessi Schmidt, activities director
